

ADDENDUM NO. 1 to the Bidding Document for the last-mile connectivity to selected unserved and underserved areas and rural community information centers (CICS)

RFB No: GDAP/Comp 2.1.13- GH-MOCDTI-474467-NC-RFB

Project: Ghana Digital Accelerated Project

Employer: Ministry of Communication, Digital Technology and Innovations

Country: Republic of Ghana

Issued on: 17th April, 2026

Date of Issue of Addendum No. 1: _____

All firms interested in NCB No. GDAP/Comp 2.1.13- GH-MOCDTI-474467-NC-RFB relating to last-mile connectivity to selected unserved and underserved areas and rural community information centers (CICS) are hereby informed that the Bidding Document has been amended as follows:

| PROVISION IN THE ORIGINAL BIDDING DOCUMENT                                                                                                                                    | MODIFY / NEW PROVISION                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Warranty Period-All equipment supplied under this project should be two years or less after manufacturing.Ref: Section VII-Activity Schedule (Page 111)        | Warranty Period-All equipment supplied under this project should be two years or less after manufacturing.One year warranty for the ICT equipment and 3 years for the Solar is requiredRef: Section VII-Activity Schedule (Page 111) |
| Desktop Computer Display Size Specifications- 15.6'Ref: Section VII-Activity Schedule (Page 107)                                                                   | Desktop Computer Display Size Specifications- 27'Ref: Section VII-Activity Schedule (Page 107)                                                                                                                                               |
| Desktop Computer Type Specifications- None specifiedRef: Section VII-Activity Schedule (Page 107)                                                                  | Desktop Computer Type Specifications- All-in-One DesktopRef: Section VII-Activity Schedule (Page 107)                                                                                                                                        |
| The RFP requires the Vendor to undertake site preparation activities, including painting works and minor civil works.Ref: Section VII-Activity Schedule (Page 102) | 1. Painting, repair and replacement of windows, doors and ceiling where necessary, plumbing works, burglar proofing, masonry works and electrical works.Entrancesa. Secure entrances to the building both front and back.                          |

|                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                                                                                                                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>b. Confirm and Provide ramp access from entrance to the Labs</li> </ul> Windows <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Replace broken windows.</li> </ul> Roofing and Ceiling <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Conduct assessment for leakages and correct all leakages</li> <li>b. Replace all worn out ceiling and facial boards</li> <li>c. Clean rain gutters and ensure proper setup of gutters to ensure a controlled approach to drain rainwater.</li> </ul> Main Lab <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Safety, facilitation of teaching and learning, and ease of maintenance should be the core principles for designing the Layout of Lab</li> <li>b. Design PC and furniture layout to ensure safety and easy of teaching and learning. Consider all conditions stipulated in tender document with respect to persons with disability using the Lab)</li> <li>c. Provide clean power through proper wiring for the Lab. (Ensure power layout reduces need for cabling across columns, design power layout to reduce need for extension boards)</li> </ul> Ref: Section VII-Activity Schedule (Page 113) |
| Ref: The RFP requires the Vendor to ensure that doors and windows are secure. Ref: Section VII-Activity Schedule (Page 102) | If the doors and windows are damaged beyond repairs, then they should be replaced. For doors, Steel security doors being the minimum requirement for most critical entrances (main CIC entry point, Lab doors and back doors to CIC being the most critical) iii. The reference is a standard galvanised steel security door set of the type widely available for homes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. single-leaf hinged security door</li> <li>b. welded steel frame</li> <li>c. multi-point lock (minimum 3)</li> <li>d. Minimum 45 mm thick; twin galvanised cold-rolled steel face sheets of not less than 0.8 mm each</li> </ul> The doorset shall achieve burglar resistance equivalent to EN 1627 Resistance Class RC2 as a minimum (resistance to opportunistic attack using                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |

|  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|--|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  | basic hand tools). RC3 is acceptable and preferred where it can be achieved within budget. <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Windows should have burglar proofs if they already do not have one.</li><li>2. Most site have burglar proofing. Where damaged or absent, it will have to be provided.</li><li>3. Yes, the vendor will have to include all forms of renovations in their financial proposals.</li><li>4. Steel security doors is preferable.</li></ol> Ref: Section VII-Activity Schedule (Page 113) |
|--|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|